Come explore Chesapeake Bay this holiday weekend with PSC. Even on one of the busiest weekends of the year, PSC is able to find quiet creeks to spend the night in. With luck, along with great sailing, we will enjoy post sail swims as well, or maybe a marina where we can enjoy local ambiance and restaurants (but remember marina fees are not included in the price). Contact: Maggie Ayres; maggie_ayres@yahoo.com; 103 Gillin Rd. The San Juan Islands, located in the northwest corner of Washington State, are a cruising paradise. These islands boast sheltered waters, magnificent marine parks, quiet villages, and welcoming marinas. Wildlife abounds on the land and in the sea, where deer, bald eagles, sea otters, seals, sea lions and orca whales are commonplace. Food, beverage, mooring and docking charges are not included in the cost of the trip. Note: two weekend trips prerequisite for this sail. Contact: Kim Keiser, kimberlykeiser1@verizon.net 215-443-5116, 25 Jack Ladder Cir. Fall typically has the best wind of any season on the bay which is why this is a club favorite. We've had just about perfect sailing and weather conditions in previous years. We'll go wherever we will have the best sail. Contact: Brian Dudonis, briandudonis.commodore@gmail.com, 610-948-5579, 484-374-9536, 270 New Street, Spring City, PA 19475.

Celebrate the end of our season with a trip to Baltimore. This year we hope to sail across the bay and spend the night in Baltimore. We will celebrate the end of our season with happy hour on Saturday evening.
